Our licensing specialists are likely to discover if data you have submitted on your application is erroneous or incomplete, or that you have omitted vital information.

Explaining and documenting a problem to your licensing specialist will be much less painful than discussing your honesty before the entire Board of Medical Examiners. This includes a sanction or disciplinary action you may have experienced during medical school or your postgraduate training, or any conflict you may have had with the legal system—even if the charge(s) have been expunged, lessened, or dismissed and no matter how long ago it occurred, the FBI will have your fingerprints on file. This will be discovered.
